This Information Bulletin has been sent to you because you were included in the mailing list for previous Championships, or because we believe that you may be interested/requested information about the event. If you would like to continue receiving Information about the Championships, it would be beneficial to add: SCC2025@Plymoutharc.org

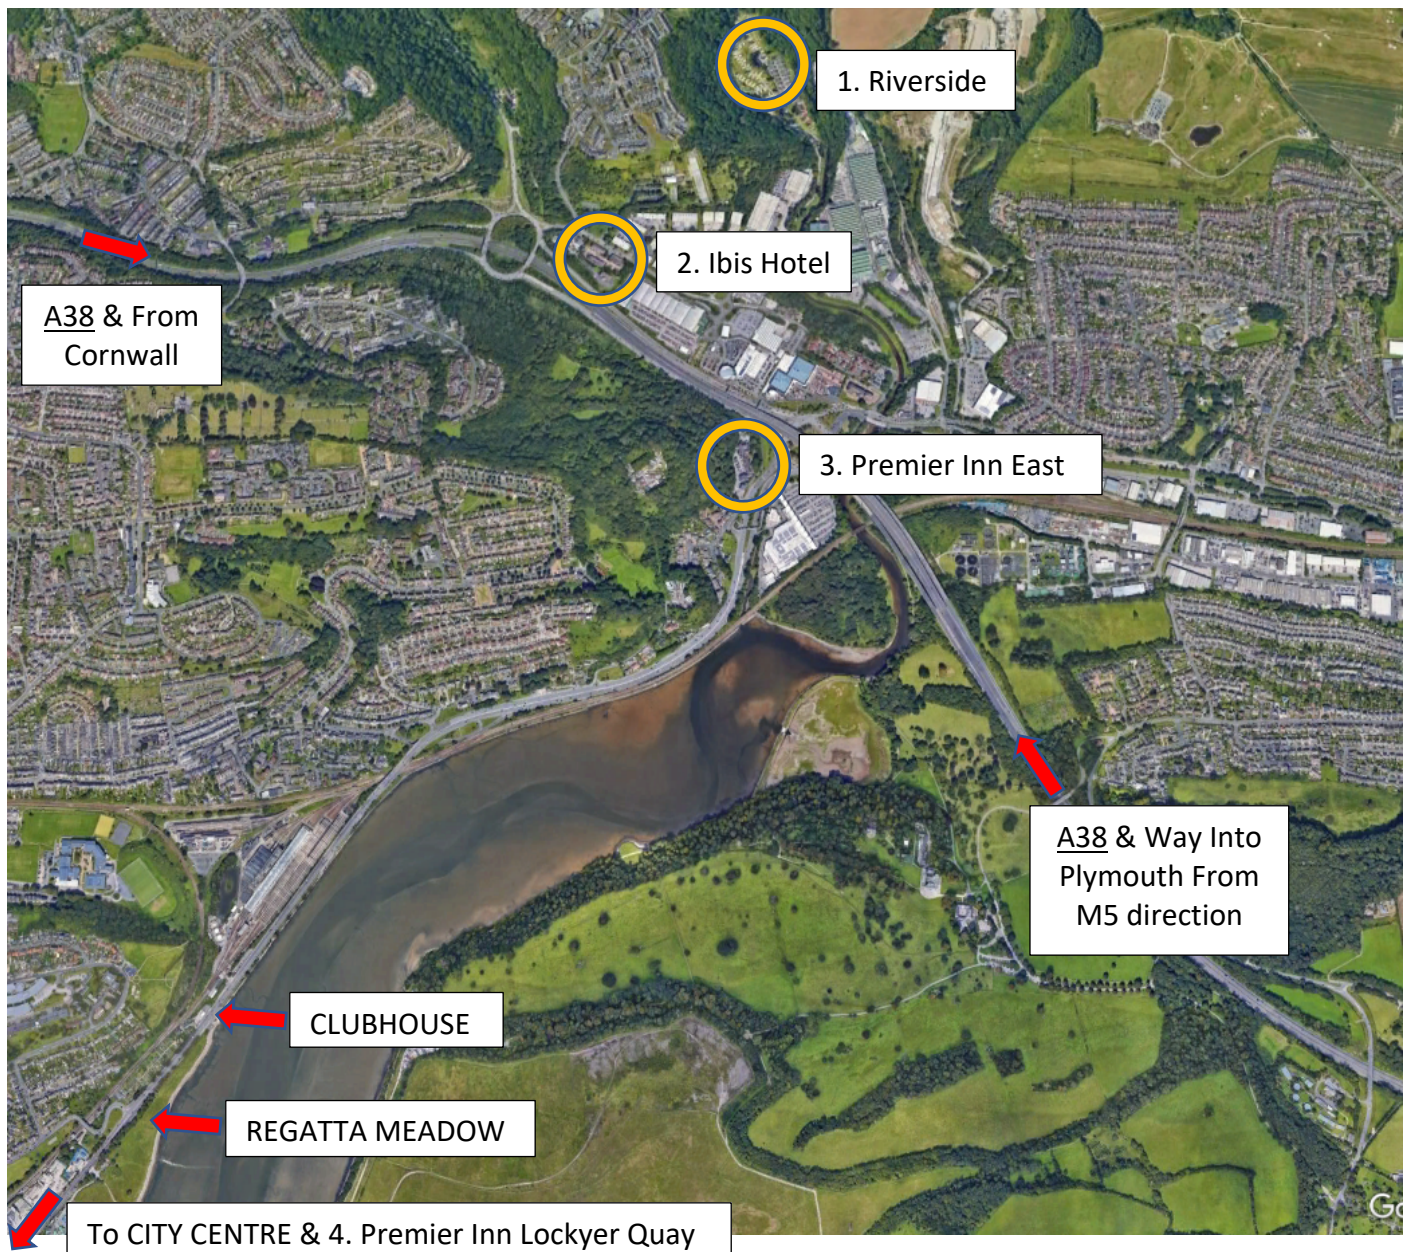

This will assist in ensuring we won't be classed as spam. Likewise, should you not wish to receive further Emails please contact and we'll remove you. This way you should not be included in future Championship Information.

Plymouth, “Britain’s Ocean City” is a vibrant, waterfront, port city in Devon, Southwest England. It is known for its maritime heritage and historic Barbican district. Blue sea to the south, natural moorland to the north and many beaches just to the sides.

You’ve welcome to source your own accommodation for the Championships through the likes of Airbnb. However, we can draw your attention to a couple of places local to the club if you’re struggling for ideas. Sadly, we can no longer use tents to sleep on the meadow alongside the club as in previous Championships. Though we have 4 places listed just to get you started.
